Join University of Maryland Extension (UME) Family & Consumer Sciences Educator Priscilla Graves, for a comprehensive financial literacy train-the-trainer, focused on basic personal finance skills relevant to the lives of teens. The program includes an assortment of 45-minute lesson plans, PowerPoint presentations, assessments, online resources, and learning activities. Whether you have experience teaching personal finance or not, you will find the instructional materials to be very easy to use and adaptable for your participants. Eighth grade through high school teachers of Family & Consumer Sciences, Personal Finance, Social Studies, Business, Economics, & Math etc. are welcome, and adult volunteers/educators are also encouraged to attend.

The High School Financial Planning Program curriculum will consist of six program modules:

- Money Management
- Borrowing
- Earning Power
- Investing
- Financial Services
- Insurance

If you have any questions regarding this program, or need a reasonable accommodation to participate in any event or activity, contact Priscilla Graves via email pgraves@umd.edu or call 410-535-3662.
